

LEAD, CLIMATE FINANCE

The Lead, Climate Finance plays a pivotal role in shaping and scoping FSDE's Just & Sustainable Finance agenda, aligned to FSD Ethiopia's mission to develop accessible, inclusive, and sustainable financial markets that support Ethiopia's Climate Resilient Green Economy (CRGE) strategy.

Operating as a senior role, this position is responsible for developing an outcomes-focused Just & Sustainable Finance strategy and priority programme pipeline for FSDE, with a particular emphasis on private finance mobilisation, market-based instruments, and capital market solutions. The role will lay the strategic, programmatic, and partnership foundations required to test, design, and position a credible Just & Sustainable Finance pillar within FSDE's wider strategy across Capital Markets Development and Financial Inclusion.

The role provides strategic direction, market insight, and technical leadership to integrate just and sustainable finance considerations - including climate finance, green finance, carbon markets, and ESG-aligned investment approaches - across FSDE's programmes, ensuring alignment with national policy priorities, international best practice, and emerging market opportunities. Working closely with internal teams, FSD Africa, and external partners, the Lead will support project scoping, partnership development, and resource mobilisation efforts, enabling FSDE to assess the feasibility of scaling this agenda into a fully-fledged programme of work overtime.
